SUCCEEDING IN BUSINESS

Helping Philippine Enterprises Prosper in Challenging Times

ECOP in partnership with the International Labour Organization (ILO) is pleased to announce the latest service to be offered by ECOP, the SUCCEEDING IN BUSINESS (SiB) program. The end goal of this program is to assist enterprises survive and prosper in challenging times and/or to sustain and promote their competitive edge.

The ILO's SiB is designed for SMEs to upgrade systems in productivity, quality, workplace relations and labour practices. The program will involve workers and managers to participate in a two-day intensive training and to be followed by three in-company assistance program to identify and find solutions for the specific needs of the organization.

The SiB program has been introduced by the ILO to other Asian countries like Sri Lanka, Vietnam, China, India, and it has also been tested in Philippine companies as well. Past results using this collaborative methodology have included:

- Considerable reductions in both end-line and in-line defect rates, increases in productivity;
- Reduced absenteeism and turnover, improvements in communication and dialogue;
- Reductions in accident rates, improvements in working conditions and facilities.

In SiB, companies will establish an improvement team, made up of workers and managers, which will drive improvement efforts. Improvement projects will be determined by the company based on expert advice and guidance to ensure SiB complements on-going improvement efforts or existing programs with their customers.
